

MAYO WALK 2013

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF IRISH EMIGRANTS

Sponsored by the Construction Workers' Benevolent Fund to benefit the work of

THE IRISH CHAPLAINCY IN BRITAIN

SATURDAY 17TH AUGUST

STARTING AT 11AM

GREAT WESTERN GREENWAY
MULRANNY TRAILHEAD, CO. MAYO

Enjoy a fun day in the open air while experiencing the incredible beauty and fateful heritage of the area. A walk for all ages and abilities, there will be a choice of short or challenging trails starting in Mulranny, and either looping back or continuing on to Newport. Follow the route taken by those who were forced by hard times to leave the country, and learn about the 57 year history of the Irish Chaplaincy in providing support for Irish emigrants. Walkers are welcome to collect individual sponsorships to aid the work of the Irish Chaplaincy in Britain. Participants will include Archbishop Charles Brown, the Papal Nuncio to Ireland.

Participation is FREE!
Donations welcome.
