'The Joy of the Gospel'

As we celebrate fifty years since the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of Vatican II, we are reminded that 'the liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the fount from which all the Church's power flows' (SC, 10). With these guiding principles before us, the Irish Church Music Association launches out into a new era for Summer School 2014 with changing dates and programme.

For 2014 we are planning to hold the Summer School from Thursday, 3 July to Sunday, 6 July. This will enable more people who cannot attend during the working week to participate. While this might affect those who have parish commitments, we invite you to bring your parish choir to the Sunday Eucharist when all participants and their choirs celebrate the Lord's Day with great joy and festivity (special €40 rate per person for Sunday).

GUEST DIRECTOR

The Guest Director for the Summer School in 2014 will be David Saint. David is the Director of Music and Organist at St Chad's Cathedral, Birmingham, and a Professor in Birmingham City University. He was Guest Director of the Summer School in 1988, 1996 and 2001. We welcome him back for 2014.

TUTORIALS

Tutorials are taking on a new image and they will now be presented in the mornings and the afternoons. They have been arranged in such a way that each participant has the opportunity to attend four tutorials over the course of the Summer School. All tutors will be asked to prepare three tutorials and will repeat each tutorial twice.
